FOR THE RIGHTS OF THE MOUNTAIN PEOPLE OF KENTUCKY, NOT THEIR WRONGS.

VOLUME 1.

SALYERSVILLE, MAGOFFIN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, FRIDAY, AUG. 30, 1912.

NUMBER 34.

Correspondence.

To CORRESPONDENTS: Mail your letters early so they will get to us not later than Monday night. RULES: Write on one side of the paper only; write plainly; spell names correctly, and write "Cor" on the envelope. Leave out neighborhood visits or we will.

If your letter does not appear, remember that it was either too late or that its contents did not justify publication.

We leave out a part, or all, of other letters as well as yours.

Our space is limited and we must leave out much that is intended for publication. That is one of the many unthankful tasks of the editor.

Correspondents get your LETTERS in early.

Carver.

The corn is growing fine up here. Every thing is looking fine. Crops are good and cattle are high.

Mr. Sam Cole and J. B. Owens are having good success in the cattle trade. They are getting every old cow in the country.

The Stork visited the home of Smith Bailey and wife and left a fine son at their home.

Mr. Peter Williams made a finish of his new dwelling, and moved in last Saturday, the family seemed to be well pleased.

We are very anxious to hear some good rail road news. We are living in hopes of a rail road coming thru this country.

A. B. W.

Elam

L. C. Elam sold a fine yoke of three years old oxen, to Coon Allen for $150.00.

Road working is progressing fine in this vicinity.

Born to Smith Griffith and wife a three pound boy.

T. J. Elam sold a yoke of yearlings to Pal Furgeson for $95.00.

Crops are good in this county.

Rev. Banks of Hazel Green is holding a protracted meeting at Bethany this week.

N. N. Elam sold a yoke of yearlings for $80.00.

YOUR BIBLE And How to Love It That You May be a Wise Work- man, able to teach others.

(We are indebted to Mr. Hugh Mino, of Cannel City, for the following:)

The following excellent selection is from C. H. Yatman's little book, "Hints on how to win souls."

First, by proving its promises.

Put them to the test. They have stood the weight of centuries, and supplied the need of generations. Try them, when one has been fulfilled mark it and that much of the Bible will be precious. Then try another, till you have at least sixty-six one in every book of the Old and New Testament. By this time you would exchange your Bible for all the other books ever written. When you are in need of strength take Deuteronomy 31, 6. When the enemy comes in like a flood take Deuteronomy 28, 7.

When you want money go to Haggai 2, 8, and Psalm 37, 4 and 5 and it will be yours. In the past three years out of these verses we have dug, with pick of perseverance and shovel of faith nearly eighty thousand dollars.

There is enough left for your needs, be they big or little.

When you seek prosperity take Joshua 1, 3 and 9. For assurance that you are saved take John 5, 24; and 1. For help when tempted 1 Corinthians 10, 13, never fails, and when many duties call for your attention, and you feel especially weak, Corinthians 9, 8 always gives the needed grace. When your way is hedged up and you are blind as to duty, Isaiah 42, 16 is like a rift in the clouds. When in great affliction have them read to you, Isaiah 43, 1 and 2. When despondent, read John 14 and Isaiah 35, and thus the word will become to you sweeter than honey in the honeycomb.

SPECIAL CHAPTERS.

If you feel yourself growing cold and indifferent read the duty chapter of the Bible, Ezekiel 33, or the tonic chapter with its beef, wine and iron for the soul, Psalm 22. Hebrews 4, is the rest chapter, while Ephesians 3 is the bottomless chapter. Always give babes in Christ the convert's chapter Isaiah 12, and weak ones the rock chapter, Deuteronomy 32.

When you find a hypocrite tell him to read Matthew 23, and one who has faith and no works, James 2. Luke 15 is the lost chapter, while love is the beginning and end of 1 Corinthians 13.

For wisdom read proverbs 3, for comfort, John 16, for blessings, Deuteronomy 27. When character is your theme, take Job 27 while the 38 chapter of the same book is topless. Search for a hundred more as sweet and precious for every chapter has its special theme.

Then add to your knowledge some of the great words of the Book, and their full meaning, such as Salvation, Faith, Work, Attonement, Come, Redemption, Blood, Light, Grace, Gospel, Peace, Life, Trust, Abiding, Kept, Assurance, Endure, Pardon, Obedience, Praise, Love, and many others just as full of sweetness and power.—TIMES REGISTER.

IVYTON.

H. B. Rice, of Hagerhill, passed through here to day on his way to Henry Patton's at Swampton, to do some carpenter work.

James P. Honaker, of Central City, is here this week to visit his boys.

Dr. M. M. Price, and wife are at Catlettsburg, this week.

What a revival we had on Big Lick last week with Rev. Walter Thomas, as the leader.

Olde.

John Whitt and W. G. Phipps left here on the 20th for Pike County after cattle.

Floyd Whitt has been laid up for a few days with a swollen foot caused by a bruise last winter.

John Whitt and John Adams found a bee tree last Tuesday and invited their neighbors in to participate in the cutting. They were found to be very rich.

After the children were served with the sweetness of the honey, they sawed out a block that contained the bees and carried it in home and the bees are working like bees of old.

Puff Stuff.

Gifford.

Departed this life on the 21st at 1. M. Aunt Lucinda Hammond, who is laid to rest, with her son and daughter, Buck and Bell, at the Boone Road Cemetery. She leaves a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss. Aged 92 years 10 months.

Uncle Wiley Patrick who has been in a dangerous condition for about 12 days past is not any better and is unconscious and just sleeping his life away.

Ben Harvey had a fine young horse to get his leg broken below the knee by running away in a hay rake.

R. C. Trusty has exchanged his farm on the Middle Fork for property in Salyersville, and will move soon.

Norman and Isom Holbrook are putting in a fine bunch of oak logs which they have contracted to the Whisler and Searcy Co.

Norman Holbrook and wife are visiting their people on Middle Creek this week.

Crops are looking fine having just enough rain at this time.

The Louisville Cooperage Stave Co. is starting up plenty of work in this section.

Galen Back, the son of Lewis Back, has just returned home from the Army after serving a term in the Islands. He arrived at home about midnight last Monday night. He talked with his father and mother for half an hour before they recognized him. F. L. Whitker still surveying land in this section for the people with the option of buying same.

Our school is progressing fine here with Mr. Manns, as instructor. Road working is the life of the cause, and we are getting our part of it through this section.

No more ten cent subscribers.

For the past several months we have offered the Mountaineer at ten cents per month, but owing to the extra trouble in keeping the fraction of a year we have decided to send your friend a sample copy rather than take a ten cent subscription.

For the same reason we shall charge sixty cents for six months and thirty-five cents for three months subscription, cash in advance, of course. It pays you as well as us to subscribe one year at a time.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Next Monday Circuit Court will convene at this place. We do not publish the names of the jurors because they are withheld from the public until the first day of court.

Hundreds of our best citizens are hoping that our new Jury Commission, appointed by Judge Gardner at the last term of Court and composed of Jesse Borders, N. P. Salyers, and Les Higgins have seen fit to give him the best possible selection of citizens as jurors. When a jury commission's lists his own personal friends or relatives, who are no themselves some of our best law-abiding citizens, the law is thus sure to be a failure. We make this statement not knowing a single man who is on either jury. We are personally interested in the administration of the law since we realize that if the editor of the Mountaineer is to be proceeded that the law must be enforced the lawyers as well as on the farmer must obey the law. On next Wednesday the trial of Jack Arnett for pointing a gun and threatening to kill the editor of this paper is scheduled. Some of our friends have said that "Jack Arnett is a privileged character". We hope that this is not the case. We see no reason why a lawyer should not take his troubles to court rather than to settle them with a forty-five.

It seems that all kinds of lawlessness from watermelon stealing to murder has been on the increase. If this lawless spirit is to be checked our petit juries and Judges, as well as grand juries, must come down on all lawlessness as never before.

READS LESSON TO MOTHERS

Decision Made by Supreme Court Justice in Brooklyn Something of a Warning.

Supreme Court Justice Marean in Brooklyn awarded a decree of divorce to Mary S. Sidway from Harold S. Sidway, son of Mrs. Franklin Sidway of Buffalo, N. Y., $350 a month alimony and the custody of their two sons. The defendant did not contest the action, but when the question of alimony was brought up he said he was in the real estate business and was earning $200 a month.

Sidway's mother, according to his wife, is worth $5,000,000. Sidway told the court that he didn't think his mother was worth more than $1,000,000 and that he was one of five children. In fixing the alimony at $350 a month Justice Marean remarked:

"If a woman brings up her son in idleness with the idea that he is to inherit something, what the mother is worth is clearly inadmissible in determining what alimony the son shall pay."

SIMPLY DON'T MAKE IT PUBLIC

Most Men Travel Under Their Wives' Management, but the Fact is Kept Concealed.

Dr. Thomas W. Brophy of Chicago, who claims that American motherhood is the highest type in the world, was asked if this was not partly due to the unusual amount of responsibility the American husband allows his wife in family affairs.

"Quite true," Dr. Brophy replied. "The confidence her husband places in her makes the American mother capable and self-reliant. The mother's share in a family's success or failure is a large one—much larger, indeed, than most men will acknowledge."

"I see by the papers," a friend once said to me, "that Footlights is traveling under his wife's management."

"So do most men," I replied, "but they don't advertise it."

DANGEROUS BARGAIN DAYS.

I think that bargain days are becoming more and more dangerous, writes a New York city woman. I went to a hat sale recently. There were moments when I thought I had broken my neck, not to mention an arm and a leg or two. At last I escaped with a hat and struggled through to a clerk. I asked her to give me a mirror.

"Mirror, madam?" said she. "We never have mirrors on sale days. We let them break the furniture, but we draw the line at the mirrors. We're superstitious about broken mirrors."

THE COLLECTION.

"I suppose, like all amateur fishermen, you caught a lot on your last fishing trip?"

"Didn't I, just! I caught the last rain, a severe cold and a lecture from my wife."

INCONSISTENCY.

"I always try to keep from worrying over things that I can't help."

"But you have just been worrying because your wife agreed to meet you here more than an hour and a half ago."

DEFINED.

Freddie—Say, dad, what's more curious?

Cobwigger—That's what the fellow has who butts in ahead of you and keeps you from seeing anything.

TRACE SHOT WITH CERTAINTY

System of Negatives Devised by French Scientist Should Aid in Detecting Crime.

Dr. Balthazard at the recent congress of legal medicine in Paris described his experiments on the identification of revolver bullets. He has formulated a system for identifying them very like that of Dr. Bertillon for identifying human beings.

He showed by greatly enlarged photographs that every gun barrel leaves marks on a bullet and that the marks are always the same for the same barrel, but never identical for two different barrels. He showed, too, that the hammer of a gun or revolver strikes the cartridge at a point which is never the exact center of the cartridge, but is always the same for the same weapon.

Dr. Balthazard has succeeded in making negatives of bullets nearly a foot wide. Every detail naturally appears very distinctly and it can be decided with absolute certainty whether a certain bullet was fired from a certain revolver.

OPPOSES THE DIVORCE RING

Boston Woman Lawyer Makes Some Sarcastic Comment on Morals of the Present Day.

Miss Amy Acton, a prominent lawyer of Boston, said recently, at a fashionable club luncheon, that the divorce ring which western women have inaugurated, is vulgar.

"It is vulgar," she said, "because it is an advertisement of the fact that the wearer is a divorced woman."

Sipping her black demi-tasse, Miss Acton added reflectively:

"I may be wrong, though, in condemning the divorce ring—it perhaps serves some very good purpose. The number of our divorces is really alarming. We seem to be approaching that state which prevailed in old Roman times when divorce was as frequent that on the tomb of an undivorced woman was inscribed: "Here lies a good wife who had but one husband."

HORRIBLE.

"I had a horrible dream last night."

"Well, you had probably eaten something you should have left for others to eat."

"I don't know whether that was the cause of it or not. I can't remember that I ate anything which I ought not to have eaten. But I dreamed that I had made $250,000."

"You don't call that a horrible dream, do you? If I could have a dream of that kind I'd never want to wake up."

"But wait. I dreamed that I had made it out of a popular song which I had written."

COULDN'T LET THAT GO.

Loud voiced and much excited, a native of Butte, Mont., sent up a cry for a bellboy at a hotel in Chicago the other day. He explained that he had just lost a valuable article and was sure it had gone out with his laundry. He handed the responding bellboy a dollar to get the package back at once, if possible. The bellboy "beat it," as he said, to the laundry and found that the westerner's linen had just been dumped into a tub. The lad pawed around in the tub, found a crumpled handkerchief and drew forth the lost article. It was a glass eye.

A GREAT FEAT.

"Some people have marvelous memories."

"For instance?"

"There is a book reviewer in this town who has been known to remember the names of the principal characters in a 'best seller' for as long as two weeks."

IMPRACTICAL IDEA.

"I think each delegate should vote at the onset for the man he thinks would make the best nominee."

"My dear sir," replied Senator Sorghum, "with every delegate voting for himself, we should never get anywhere."

SENSITIVE MAN.

"You know," he was saying, "I couldn't see a woman stand up while I was sitting."

"So you gave her your seat?"

"No; I closed my eyes and pretended to be asleep."—Judge's Library.

FOR SALE.

On account of the recent high water of State Road fork, threatening many dwellings in Salyersville, I have decided to sell some building lots that are high and dry and out of all danger of high water.
They are located near Magoffin Institute. For the choicest lots in Salyersville apply at ONCE to S. S. ELAM.

If you want to leave Kentucky let us know. We'll send you to Florida.

If you get hungry go to the Prater House.

LOCAL NEWS.

Read the Mountaineer.

If you want fresh fruit, ice cream or groceries see Alonzo Keeton, the Corner Grocerman.

Miss Margaret Pendleton arrived Friday, and is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mann. She will leave Monday for Midway where she will enter school.

Remember that the Mountaineer is now thirty-five cents for three months, sixty cents for six months and one dollar per year in advance.

Judge and Mrs. D. W. Gardner entertained the young people Saturday evening.

A vast amount of ill health is due to impaired digestion. When the stomach fails to perform its functions properly the whole system becomes deranged. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets is all you need. They will strengthen your digestion, invigorate your liver and regulate your bowels, entirely doing away with that miserable feeling due to faulty digestion. Try it. Many others have been permanently cured—why not you? For sale at Dr. Kash's Drug Store.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. E. B. Arnett Friday.

"I was cured of diarrhoea by one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes M. E. Gebhardt, Oriole, Pa. There is nothing better. For sale at Dr. Kash's Drug Store.

ELAM MEMORIAL MEETING.

On Thursday before the second Sunday in September services will be held at Bethany Church, by Rev. John Bays and others.
On the second Sunday services will be at the grave of Jeremiah Elam, this being the 100th year since his birth. All are invited to come and bring a well-filled basket to be spread on the ground on Sunday.

RAIL ROAD SURVEY

The Walker corps is still camping at the Blue Grass Spring. They have made several surveys by Salyersville. This is by far the most thorough survey that has come through Magoffin.

Mr. W. S. Gunsalus, a farmer living near Fleming, Pa., says he has used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in his family for fourteen years, and that he has found it to be an excellent remedy and takes pleasure in recommending it. For sale at Dr. Kash's Drug Store.

Prof. Edwards of Berea, left Thursday after a few days visit in the interest of his school.

Any person desiring to assist in the erection of the stone church building of this place will make their contribution to the Secretary, Mrs. D. W. Gardner, Salyersville, Ky.

Miss Julia Stapleton of Oil Springs, has been visiting her friend, Miss Jessie Patrick.

One of the most common ailments that hard working people are afflicted with is lame back. Apply Chamberlain's Liniment twice a day and massage the parts thoroughly at each application and you will get quick relief. For sale at Dr. Kash's Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Stephens delightfully entertained Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Elizabeth May.

I am now stocking up on new goods. For rock bottom prices on meat, lard, flour, meal, and other groceries call on J. S. Fletcher. Your patronage solicited.

Prof. Noah May of Berea is visiting friends and relatives and looking after the interest of the school at Berea.

Did you know that you were judged by the stationery that you use? With twenty sizes of the newest and latest styles of type, as well as several hundred pounds of ruled and unruled paper and envelopes, a good job press and ink that cost $1.50 per pound, the Mountaineer office is equipped to do all kinds of job work.

Mr. John H. Patrick moved to town Wednesday and has taken charge of the Prater House.

Miss Morton, who has been in charge of the M. E. Church for the past three months, left Wednesday for Catlettsburg.

Mrs. Rhoda Jones of Cannel City is visiting Mrs. Grant Anderson.

Mrs. M. F. Reddish of Somerset who has been visiting Mrs. E. H. Atkinson the last few days returned home Tuesday.

CONTRARY FORK OF PRICY.

Next week after rainy weather, I have been away on my vacation. I went to Bryanville to visit my Uncle Ruff, and fish and hunt and recreate. I sorry had a good time, and sorry didn't. There wasn't a single girl in 50 miles of that place that wasn't mortgaged, or engaged, or optioned. My Uncle gave me the following job.

Let the hogs out of the corn, feed and slop them, drive the chickens out of the garden feed them, and brought up the cows feed and milked them and took them to pasture carried up water poked up apples and carried the milk up from the cellar and cut more stove-wood, then mind the babies until breakfast was ready.

I genned around on the place cutting bushes the remainder of the day. Now if this was a vacation I don't want any more in mine.

Corn is laid by down here, and as usual all gone to stealing water melons and getting drunk.

We hereby Petition the Legislature of Ky. if there is any to assist us. We need every thing that we can get. One of the things that we need most is a cord gutter. The following is the kind we want. To wit:

Weight 2500 pound.
Power 23 Hap power.
Kind Vaseline Engine.

We want it to shuck the Rose-ears, throw the cobs clean out over the bank below Jasper Mullins Old smoke-house.

Terms: We will give you the shux, silks, and cobs for 3 months. Boomer Bill and Lampus Joe just returned from a trip over in Bryanville. They went in a Restless. They ended for breakfast and the waiter brought in the following. 6 soft boiled racoon-naz, 4 Roustabouts raw, 3 Riffles-ranges straight up, 7 Rusted terrapin heads, and as a desert fried accidents and stewed happens and gridiron gravy flavored with jimpson juice.

Rufe Johnson.

HENDRICKS.

Plenty of rain and good crops seems to be the order of the day in this vicinity.

Married the 20th inst. Mr. Eliott Arnett (son of Jeff Arnett) Miss. Eliza James of Hazel Green, Ky. After a brief visit to the parents of young Arnett they will return to Hazel Green to make their home.

The people of Hendricks are pleased to note that the Editor of the Mountaineer has no space available for the discussion of National Politics and they hope to see him hold his grip on this question as some of them think he is a little inclined to be friendly to the "Moon" element, the writer thinks otherwise.

The writer is pleased to report that we have a quiet neighborhood in the vicinity of Hendricks. No whiskey, no gambling, no places of idleness and idleness than ever "scraps" of any kind to report.

QUICKER THAN WALK DOWN
Carpenter Unwillingly Shot the Chute From Twenty-sixth Floor of New York Hotel.

Charles Tolder of No. 301 East Ninety-first street, New York, broke the world's record for shooting a chute, when he glided down a rubbish chute from the twenty-sixth floor of the Hotel McAlpine into waiting dump at the sidewalk on of the chute.

Tolder is a carpenter, and his boy sent him to the roof to do some repair work. He missed his footing and fell just as a load of rubbish was shot into the chute from a hand car on the roof. The loader on the wagon saw a man's head and arm sticking out of the load of mortar waste paper and fragments of brick that had just filled the wagon overflowing. He hurriedly helped the driver of the wagon dig the man out.

When taken to the New York hospital in an ambulance it was learned that outside of a few cuts and bruises, Tolder was none the worse for his glide.

NOT LEARNING ANYTHING NEW

Arnold Daly Had Had Vague Knowledge of Information Being Given Him.

Arnold Daly, the brilliant young actor to whom G. B. Shaw is indebted for much of his American popularity, was spending the week-end at Atlantic City.

At the palatial hotel where he was stopping a copper magnate with his family occupied the royal suite.

One evening, in the palm garden after dinner, a charming young actress lighted a cigarette, and, arranging the folds of her pinnier skirt sat down beside Mr. Daly.

"With so much money," she said, "the Metals make everybody look small, but," she added mysteriously, "I just heard something that will surprise you. They say the Metals have a skeleton in the family."

"That doesn't surprise me at all," the young actor replied. "I saw him swimming this morning."

CAREFUL PAPA.

A young lawyer whose wedding few years ago was quite a social event is now the proud father of a baby girl. He is extremely solicitous regarding her welfare and has already laid down a set of laws, applicable to all his friends, and declares they must be obeyed.

Not long ago he took a number of his friends out to see the young lady and at the door of the room he halted. Turning to the group he exclaimed:

"Now, for goodness' sake don't any of you boys swear. This girl will be learning to talk in a few months and I don't want to hear her cussing around the first words she says."

BRIDGET IS NONPLUSSED.

Mrs. Jenkins had retired to her room to try to sleep off a headache. She had a particularly devoted maid, Bridget. Bridget now annoyed Mrs. Jenkins greatly by attempting to enter every little while and peep in at her. Finally Mrs. Jenkins called to Bridget and asked her to do it, as it was disturbing her, which Bridget replied:

"Sure, Mrs. Jenkins, what am I to do? When yez makes a noise thinks yez wants me, an' when yez quiet I gits to thinkin' maybe yez is dead."

DEPARTMENT STORE EPISODE

"Mr. Wombat, I have been with you a long time, but by eyesight failing now. I have been in several departments of the store, lace, silk and lost goods through the shoplifters. I guess I'd better resign."

"Not at all, my boy," said the head of the department store. "I have been with me for years and you shall remain as long as you like. I put you in the grindstone department. I don't think you'll lose me goods there."

THE REGULAR THING.

"What does Tanks want to with that thirst of his?" "I rather think he wants to be treated for it."

VERY LITTLE.

Bill—What he needs is a lit backbone.

Jim—Well, he's got about as lit of it as anybody I know.

COST OF SOLDIER'S CLOTHING

Overseas is the most expensive article that Uncle Sam's fighters have to buy.

One place in which it is possible to ascertain with accuracy how much clothes actually cost is in the reports of the war department, says the New York Sun. These tell how much the soldiers have to pay for their clothes.

The soldiers of the United States army wear good clothes—that is, clothes suitable for the purpose for which they are designed and capable of standing a great deal of wear. The new olive drab woolen uniform, consisting of breeches and tunic, costs the soldier $7.40, $4.67 for his coat and $2.83 for his breeches. His linen collar costs 4 cents. His gloves cost 37 cents. His canvas leggings cost 57 cents and he can buy mittens for 30 cents and overalls for 57 cents. His stockings cost as follows: Cotton, 8 cents; heavy woolen, 24 cents; light, 13 cents.

His dress trousers of twenty-two ounce kersey, the material of which is sold to officers at $2.30 a yard, cost $3.03, and his dress coat of the same material costs $5.37. He pays for his khaki breeches $1.46 and for his khaki service coat $1.73.

His chambray shirt costs 52 cents, the olive drab flannel shirt $2.60 and the muslin shirt only 31 cents.

The most expensive item of all his equipment is his olive drab overcoat, which costs $12.38. These clothes are sold to the soldier at cost plus the expense of storage and in the case of the organized militia with the cost of packing added.

VANITY

"Yassuh, I've settin' out heah in do sun so's I kin git a tan, and folks'll think I've done been to de sea-sho' fer a vacation."

BODY KEPT FOR 25 YEARS.

In France there lives an old man who refuses to bury the body of his father, which he has preserved in alcohol since he died. He lives in an old feudal chateau, with high walls and a round stone tower, situated near the little village of Virevols, in the Auvergne. M. Hector Granet, an artist and collector of curios, is the owner of the castle and the mummy. It is 25 years since his father died. At the time the son could not bear the idea of his father being buried, so without embalming the body, simply put it into alcohol. Then he built a museum, a gruesome place with a curious stained glass window designed by himself. Inside the little building is the coffin, full of alcohol, in which rests the perfectly preserved body of M. Granet's father. Through a hole cut in the head of the coffin lid M. Granet can see his father's features. He talks to him, and plays on the accordion the old songs he used to love during his life-time. Beside the coffin containing his father's remains M. Granet has placed another, in which he wishes to be preserved in a similar manner.

WOLFISH CROWD.

"Any wolves out here?" "Not exactly," answered Farmer Hack. "But if you want to see the next best thing stick around until I open the dining room doors."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

NOT A COOL PROCEEDING.

"Talk about hot entertainments—" "Well?" "Here's Jauders sending our invitations to a house warming!"

NATURAL RECEPTACLE.

"In the natural order of things, we ought to be able to shelve our nerves." "Why so?" "Isn't everything put on them?"

WAS READY WITH HIS ANSWER

"Old Si" Proved Himself Something of a Master in the Art of Repartee.

Everybody who rides on the Brooklyn avenue owl car knows "Old Si," the conductor, and "Old Si" knows everybody on the line, and never fails to put his passengers off at the right corner. He is blunt in speech, but witty.

The other Sunday night several couples of young people living out near Thirty-first street boarded the car and began laughing and talking in loud tones, trying to "kid" everyone on the car. Finally one of the youths spied "Old Si," whose shirt front was somewhat worse for a hard day's wear.

"Say, Mr. Conductor," he shouted, "why didn't you put on a clean shirt tonight for Sunday?" And his companions guffawed.

"Si" never hesitated a second, but came back with this:

"Because you were not at home, and your mother had no one to send my washing by." The crowd belated, and the young folks got off at Troost avenue and transferred.—Kansas City Star.

AND HE KNEW HER

Cholly—Tell your sister that I am here. Here's ten cents for your trouble.

Willie—Yes, sis said there'd be trouble if I said she was in.

BEAUTY OF THE WORLD.

The rainbow is of quite as much use in its way as is the rain that falls to make the corn grow.

Clouds are not only God's sprinkling-pots to increase the supply of potatoes, they are God's paints which he lays upon the canvas of the evening sky to make souls grow by their feast of beauty.

Apple trees are not designed to produce apples alone, but apple blossoms as well, for bees and love's eyes to feed on.

In other words, this world is not merely a machine shop or a farm; there's a lot of heaven hid about in it, and shy treasures only discernible in high moods.—Dr. Frank Crane, in Woman's World.

WEALTHY WOMAN'S KIND ACT.

Mrs. George H. McFadden of Philadelphia has given her summer home at Rosemont, Pa., Hilldale farm, to the University hospital to be used as a convalescent home for women sufficiently recovered to be out of the hospital and yet not well enough to go to work. Six women at a time will be accommodated, and in her home they will be treated as her guests. She will besides pay all expenses of transportation.

COLD WAVE.

Nellie—They say mustaches are coming back.

Manie—Do you care?

Nellie—Certainly. I think most men look much more handsome and knightly with them.

Manie—Well, of course, I suppose you know. I was too young to take notice when they went out of style.

WASTED WORRY.

"Much of our worry is needless." "Yes; it is. I once bought some stock in a rubber grove and worried two winters about frost before I ascertained that the trees hadn't been planted."

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES.

"Where is our cat tonight?" "I think he's gone to a musicale on Jones' woodshed."

THE ETERNAL FEMINE.

She—I tell you this cry of the women has a ring in it. He—Sort of leap year noise?

MANY ARE BLIND IN ONE EYE

Person May Suffer This Physical Defect and Go Through Life Without Knowing It.

An English author, Mrs. Francis Vivian Campbell, has brought a damage suit embodying some novel features against a Newcastle steamship line. She complains, among other things, that while on a voyage in the Mediterranean she contracted ptomaine poisoning from the bad food on the Carib Prince, and that, as a result, she had lost the sight of her left eye. Medical testimony was to the effect that the loss of sight was due to blood poisoning and that it was not usual for ptomaine poisoning to affect only one eye. It would appear that Mrs. Campbell was not immediately aware of this loss of sight. One of the physicians who gave testimony in the case said this was not remarkable, that scores of people have been blind in one eye since birth and yet had not realized it. He gave as an explanation that with perfect eyesight one has what is known as a field of vision. A person with one defective eye sees all right but on one side a piece of the view is missing. This one may never notice because he has never seen differently. He said that while the majority of people may find out for themselves that they have a defective eye, or one from which sight has gone, there is a large minority that only make this discovery after many years, and some who go to their graves without ever making it.

HIS REASON

I. M. P. Cumins—Say, lend me a ten-spot, old man.

Mr. Gotrox—If you'd save your own money you wouldn't have to borrow from your friends.

I. M. P. Cumins—Well, it's because I want to save my own money that I borrow from my friends.

BEST KIND OF VACATION.

To be productive of lasting benefit, a vacation should mark a complete change in one environment and habits. Country people find this in going to the city, while city folks flee to the country; those living on the salt water go to the mountains, and vice versa. For this reason camp life has become so deservedly popular. The dweller in a modern city needs to get away for a while from telephones, elevators, subways, automobiles and all the multitude of things that make life easy and convenient, and get back to primitive simplicity. Tent life in the woods or beside lake or stream constitutes the biggest possible contrast with the artificial life of the city, and a vacation thus spent means not only physical recuperation, but a tonic to the spirit, a renewal of kinship with nature's elemental forces.—Leslie's Weekly.

REAMS OF IT.

"They have found a bit of unpublished manuscript by Robert Louis Stevenson. Only a few pages, yet worth their weight in gold."

"Only a few pages, eh?" mused the unsuccessful author. "When I'm gone, what a lot of unpublished manuscript they'll find."

LUCKY BO.

"This is the third time you have been here for food," said the woman at the kitchen door, to the tramp. "Are you always out of work?" "Yes'm," replied the itinerant. "I guess I was born under a lucky star."

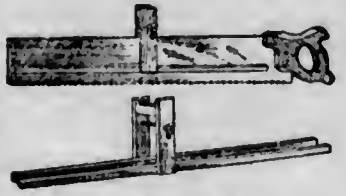

NO SUNDAY BUSINESS.

Church—I see a London medical journal advocates the better airing of banks over Sunday as a means of improving public sanitation. Gotham—Yes; but wouldn't it be contrary to law for banks to take in drafts on Sunday?

SPECIAL DEVICE FOR DEPTH SAWS

Gage Shown in Illustration Will be Found Useful When Cutting to Any Uniform Depth.

It is frequently necessary to make a saw cut of uniform depth, and unless a special device is provided for the purpose the task is an extremely difficult one, says the Scientific American. The accompanying illustration shows a small gage which may be applied to any saw and may be adjusted thereon to prevent the saw from cutting deeper than desired. Two thin strips of wood of about the length of the saw blade are fastened to a pair of arms secured to a block at the upper end. A thumb screw below this block may be tightened to clamp the two strips against the blade of the saw. These strips may be secured at any desired point on the blade, and thus provide an easily adjustable depth gage.

Horses Susceptible to Cold. Horses are exceedingly susceptible to cold on the chest, and a horse will oftentimes contract pneumonia or other ill if left standing unprotected, which he would escape if provided with a thick apron of carpet or oil-cloth suspended from the hames and reaching to the lowest portion of the chest. It is a little thing and inexpensive, but it is worth attending to.

Italian Cotton Imports. Italy now imports more than $50,000,000 worth of cotton each year. Hence the government is carefully fostering all attempts to produce a native crop.

PROTEST MADE AGAINST HUNTER

No Reason Why Farmer Should be Expected to Tolerate Band of Trespassers Every Fall.

(By BESSIE L. PUTNAM.)

A few years ago, when the pioneers along the line commenced to object to the depredations of the hunter, they were charged by hunter and surrounding farmers alike as stingy and unaccommodating. But more and more is there a growing sentiment against having one's farm used as a hunting ground.

At this season it is very easy to start a fire, very difficult to check one that has once commenced. Even though the majority of hunters are careful never to toss aside a lighted cigar, never to strike matches in improper places, one never knows when the careless one may come along and do untold mischief.

There is the annoyance to stock. The old saying, "One might as well be killed as scared to death," is applicable with peculiar force. Sheep, worried by hunter and dogs, soon become so wild that not even the owner can approach them readily. Cattle have been known to stampede when a gun was fired in close proximity. Such treatment is ruinous to the dairyman, to say nothing of the frequent accidents, when a valuable animal is sacrificed, the hunter making off with his game and leaving the owner of the land that much poorer for his generosity.

Finally, the game is rapidly being exterminated, and much of it is really the farmer's friend. The quail, the clear note of which fills all bird lovers with joy, is one of the best insect and weed destroyers.

A flock of quail in the potato patch renders the use of Paris green unnecessary, and the dateated cut-worm is their favorite dessert.

The farmer "feeds the world" but there is no reason why he should be expected to tolerate a band of trespassers every fall, endangering the life of his possessions. In many communities farmers are banding together against the hunting nuisance.

AFTER THE HUG.

He—You smashed two cigars in my inside pocket just then! She—That's nothing! You bent a whole package of cigarettes in my corsage!—Puck.

NOT QUITE.

"You have never heard of Rousseau, I take it." "Rousseau? Let's see? Wasn't he with the Giants in '97?" "What are you doing for your county paper?"
